

MACKENZIE IN THE MIRROR

an original screenplay by

REEF ALKAUD
MAY, 12, 2016

REEF ALKAUD
reefalkaud@gmail.com

EXT. MACKENZIE'S HOME - LAKEWOOD STREET- NIGHT

It is quiet. By the window, no one is on the road, but only a few cars parking all through the thunderstorm and rain.

INT. MACKENZIE'S ROOM - MACKENZIE'S DREAM - NIGHT

MACKENZIE a teacher (22) carrying her handbag and books with her, kind and gentle with brown hair, blue eyes. MACKENZIE is in her bedroom sleeping. MACKENZIE sees her mother (57), beautiful long hair, green eyes. Her mother is compassionate. MACKENZIE talks to her mother through the mirror.

MACKENZIE'S MOTHER

(Happily)

I love you.

MACKENZIE

Mom, Tell me how could I reach the truth.

MACKENZIE'S MOTHER

Take this notebook.

MACKENZIE remembers her mother as she flips through the pages of the notebook.

MACKENZIE

I miss you mother.

CUT TO:

QUICK FLASHBACK . MACKENZIE'S 7th BIRTHDAY

Music is on and cheerful kids are playing. MACKENZIE'S MOTHER cuts the birthday cake. Her friends hand her presents.

MACKENZIE'S MOTHER

This notebook is for you.

MACKENZIE

Thanks mother.

CUT TO: